

PRIVACY POLICY TECHNOMEDICAL

1. INTRODUCTION

K. DOULGERIS & CO – TECHNOMEDICAL acknowledges that you are concerned about how your information is shared and processed, therefore we take several appropriate measures to safeguard your personal data under our control. This Privacy Policy defines the steps we take to ensure that the information provided to us will remain secure and confidential and will be used only for the purposes for which it is provided.

With this Privacy Policy we would like to keep you updated regarding:

- How and why we collect and process your information,
- How this information helps us to meet your professional needs and requirements,
- With who and why we share your information,
- Your choices regarding how we use your information,
- The security measures we take to keep your information safe,
- How you can contact us regarding privacy issues.

2. GENERAL INFORMATION

Processing of personal data

Personal data according to Article 4 of the General Data Protection Regulation of the EU (GDPR) are all information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person, e.g. name, address, e-mail address, VAT number, identity card number etc.

Notifications to Public Authorities

In order to comply with relevant legal requirements, we reserve the right to disclose information about you if we are requested to do so by competent authorities or law enforcement agencies.

3. TYPES OF INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We collect as little information as possible to be able to maintain a satisfying level of collaboration with you. Usually, this information is provided by you and includes:

- Contact details (name, email, address, home address, mobile and land line numbers).
- Tax and id information (name, VAT number, profession)
- Financial details such as bank accounts.

4. HOW WE USE YOUR INFORMATION

We would like to keep you always updated regarding collecting and using your personal data that come into our possession when you cooperate with us. We only ask for the minimum information required to serve our business relationship and to effectively communicate with you. In general, we process information to:

- issue and archive the legal tax documents relating to your transactions with us;
- make and receive payments;
- communicate and cooperate with you for the purposes of our business relationship;
- comply with legally binding procedures;
- send you bids and confirm your orders;
- execute your orders
- deliver our products to you and provide you with our services;
- receive your feedback on problems you may encounter when collaborating with us.

In accordance with GDPR's article 6, the legal bases for processing are contractual obligations and legal obligations.

5. TRANSFER OF YOUR INFORMATION

We never disclose your information to third parties, except when:

- it is necessary to provide you with a service that you have requested (e.g. to deliver products with a transportation company);
- it is required by a critical internal process (e.g. IT support, accounting services, etc.);
- it is required by Law (e.g. Tax Authorities).

When your information is transferred to third parties, we ensure that we minimize this information to the extent necessary to achieve the specific purpose.

Unless otherwise prohibited by any legal process, third parties are obliged and bound to protect your personal data in accordance with our policy and comply with applicable laws and regulations on privacy.

Your personal data will not be transferred by us to third countries and international organizations.

6. RETENTION AND ERASURE

We will retain your Personal Data for the period necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this Privacy Policy unless a longer retention period is required or permitted by law. The criteria used to determine our retention period include:

- The length of time we have an ongoing relationship with you.
- Whether there is a legal obligation to which we are subject (for example, tax laws require us to keep records of your transactions for a certain period of time before we can delete them).
- Whether retention is advisable considering our legal position (such as, for statutes of limitations, litigation or regulatory investigations).

After the end of retention period, your personal data are destroyed, deleted or anonymized.

7. YOUR RIGHTS

You must know that according to General Data Protection Regulation, you have certain rights regarding your personal data under our possession. Specifically, you can ask us to:

- give you a copy of your data,
- correct your data, if you think they are not accurate,
- erase your data, if there are specific reasons to do so,
- limit the processing applied to your data,
- give your data to you in an appropriate format and to transfer them to another Company,
- stop processing your data, under certain conditions.

To ask us to do anything of the above, you can contact us by phone (+30 2310 933308) and by email: info@techmed.gr. We will promptly examine your request against the relevant requirements of the laws and regulations governing personal data protection and we will answer the latest within 30 days after receiving your request. If, for reasons of complexity of the request or a multitude of requests, we are unable to respond promptly, we will notify you within thirty days of any delay, which in no case may exceed two months from the expiration of the 30-day deadline. It is possible to ask from you some kind of identification (e.g. photocopy of your identity card or passport) to avoid non-authorized reveal of your personal data.

To ensure that your personal data are always accurate and updated, we recommend you keep us informed about your data, as needed (e.g. in case of a change in a street or email address).

If you feel that your rights regarding your personal data are being compromised, you have the right to submit a complaint to the relevant Data Protection Authority: <http://www.dpa.gr>, Kifissias 1-3, T.K. 115 23, Athens, tel. 210 6475600, email: contact@dpa.gr. In this case, we would especially appreciate your prior communication with us, either by sending a letter to our headquarters:

54, Kifissias str, 551 34,
Thessaloniki, Greece

or by sending an email to: info@techmed.gr, always giving your full details and your reason for contacting us. We assure you that we appreciate your trust and we take prompt care to respond to any requests, questions or complaints.

8. SECURITY

We apply security technologies, data protection policies and other measures to protect personal data under our control from unauthorized access, inappropriate use, alteration, illegal or accidental destruction and loss. We also require from all our employees and any third party that have access to or are authorized to process your data, to be bound by a contract to protect your privacy.
